LOCAL MEDLEY.

A Family Turned Out by a Landlady.

A SMALL AMOUNT OF RENT DUE.

Recovered Her Trunks—Amusements in the City and Other Interesting Events.

About 9 o'clock last night a colored man named Nelson Holloway, accompanied by his wife, called at the Police Station and asked to see the Chief. Upon being ushered into his presence, the couple poured into his ear a harrowing tale to the effect that they lived in a small house on the corner of Second and Pearl streets, which belonged to Mrs. Mulhaven. They explained that they paid her $2 rent each week for the place, but last week Holloway omitted to draw his pay, and consequently could not meet the usual demand for rent; but, on informing the landlady, she said it would not inconvenience her at all to wait until Saturday next. During the absence of the Holloways yesterday afternoon, however, Mrs. Mulhaven entered the house and took possession of the property. The only occupants at the time were the two children of her tenants, the younger of whom was just learning to walk; but seizing one in each hand the woman flung them out into the yard, and nailed up the door of the dwelling. Mrs. Holloway was the first to return, and her elder child notified her of the situation; and after taking her offspring to a neighbor's house for shelter, the mother attempted to force an entrance into her residence. While doing so, however, Mrs. Mulhaven came upon the scene, and raising a huge club threatened to break her tenant's skull if she made any further effort to get back into the house. As all their belongings were still in the house, and they had not been notified to vacate the premises, the husband, as soon as he learned of the high-handed proceeding, came down town to consult the authorities. Chief Glass called the attention of Police Judge Owens, who happened to be at the station, to the case, and at his suggestion, Officer Sanchez was detailed to protect the Holloways while they effected an entrance into their home. Accordingly, the trio went out to the place and, despite the protestations of their landlady, the family was once more installed comfortably, though not without evincing a wholesome fear of the woman, and she was informed that she could not eject them without doing so by due process of law.

GOT HER TRUNKS.

How Mrs. Jaier Obtained Possession of Her Property.

It is reported that for some weeks past there has been trouble between Mrs. Kate Gross, of No. 62 Amelia street, and Mrs. Emma Jaier, her lodger; and their misunderstandings and quarrels reached a climax when the latter caused the arrest of her landlady and her husband for disturbing the peace some three weeks ago. When the case was brought to trial Police Judge Stanton dismissed the defendants, and since that time, it is said that Mrs. Gross has endeavored to make life a burden to Mrs. Jaier. Yesterday Mrs. Jaier's month was up and Mrs. Gross spoke about rent coming due, and as the lodger didn't happen to have enough ready money to settle with, she paid Mrs. Gross half in cash and tendered her a promissory note for the balance, $6. This was accepted and peace once more reigned in the household, until Mrs. Jaier happened to speak about moving to other quarters. Watching her opportunity, Mrs. Gross, in the absence of her lodger, took possession of her property, which consisted of three trunks, a sewing machine and a parlor lamp, and locked them all up in a spare room. When Mrs. Jaier returned to her room and found what had been done, she went to the Police Station, and Officer Wright, of the Humane Society, was called into requisition. Last evening he went down to the house and interviewed Mrs. Gross on the question, and at her request went upstairs to see the property withheld. While he was remonstrating with her about her arbitrary proceeding, an express wagon drove up to the door, unnoticed by Mrs. Gross, and Mrs. Jaier entered the room stealthily and pounced upon one of her trunks, which she commenced to drag out of the room. Mrs. Gross heedless of the officer's presence, grabbed the other end and a desperate tug of war followed for some minutes, but slowly inch by inch Mrs. Jaier gained the advantage and finally got the box into the hall. She then dropped her end of the property and rushing back pounced upon another trunk, but this time Mrs. Gross jumped upon her lodger, and Officer Wright interfered and threatened to arrest her. Then the same tug of war was gone over again, until Mrs. Jaier triumphantly obtained possession of all her property, which was lifted upon the wagon and carried away. Then only did the landlady divine the trick played upon her, and she turned upon the Humane Officer and he got a piece of a woman's mind.

A WAYWARD WIFE.

She is Finally Recovered by Her Husband.

Some six months ago there arrived in this city a remarkably pretty brunette about 20 years of age, named Mrs. Lizzie Siebel, who came from Council Bluffs presumably on a visit to her old schoolmate, Mrs. Gibbens, who lived with her husband and family at No. 24 Laurel street. Of her the following story is told: For some reason best known to herself the young lady endeavored to forget the existence of her husband, a well-to-do cattleman, to whom she had been married about five years, and at her special request her friend introduced her to all friends and acquaintances as Miss Siebel. Amongst those who were so introduced was "Bill" Crum, the one-eyed fireman of Company No. 3, now stationed at Ninth street. Notwithstanding the fact that Bill is already married, and is the father of a small family, he is said to be somewhat of a masher, and as a violinist has no equal in the department. Both became infatuated with each other, so it is said, upon a very short acquaintance. Of course Crum omitted to mention the fact of his marriage to the young lady or her friends, and things went on very smoothly for some time, during which Miss Siebel learned to play the violincello, and the two performers frequently played duets for the entertainment of their friends. In the meantime Mrs. Crum got "wind" of her husband's treachery and began to institute inquiries, which finally led her to call upon Miss Siebel in person and state the case plainly. However, the younger woman refused to promise that she would never meet Crum again, and the injured wife determined to expose her guilty husband and laid her plans accordingly, so that they should be shown up at a dance held last Saturday night. Miss Siebel, however, heard of her intention, and, though present, avoided Crum, so that the wife's plan did not work. Upon being made acquainted with the fact of Crum's indiscretion by his wife, Gibbens, who is a street-car driver, politely refused to allow young Mrs. Siebel to remain at his house any longer, and she obtained a position as housekeeper out on Temple street and left. On Wednesday last Henry Siebel, who had been notified of his wife's whereabouts, arrived in this city and stopped at the St. Elmo Hotel. He soon learned of her whereabouts and an interview took place between them, during which she told him plainly that she could never leave "her Crum." Her husband, however, is evidently of the opinion that she may be taught to forget her escapade, and last night, accompanied by her long-suffering spouse, she paid a farewell visit to the Gibbens family before leaving for her former home in Council Bluffs.

Charles Day was arraigned by Justice Theodore Savage yesterday upon a charge of disturbing the peace of a child named Jennie Hughes, by making improper proposals to her on Monday last on Main street. He entered a plea of not guilty, and his case was set for trial on Saturday next at 3 p. m.; but at 10 o'clock he returned into court, and withdrawing his former plea, entered that of guilty, whereupon the Court sentenced him to the County Jail for seven days.

A complaint was filed in the Police Court yesterday, charging Tom Spikes, a colored gambler, with having committed an assault with intent to commit murder upon a white man named William Roberts, on Wednesday night. Up to the hour of going to press this morning Spikes had not been arrested, though the officers are still on the hunt. His victim, who lies in the City Jail, is in a precarious condition, and grave doubts are expressed as to his ultimate recovery.

The Turf Club Saloon.

The Turf Club Saloon, in the Adam block, has changed hands, and it is intended to make it one of the most palatial resorts of the kind in Los Angeles. Mr. F. Adam, the proprietor, was compelled to assume charge of the place in order to carry out the arrangements, and the saloon will be conducted by him. An entire renovation of the building will be the first step. Commodious offices will be arranged on the second story which will be utilized for business purposes. The establishment will be elaborately fitted up in the most artistic style of modern decoration and will undoubtedly equal any similar place of its kind in the city, which is saying a great deal. It is intended to make it the resort of business men, and a fine mercantile lunch will be served daily. It is expected that the improvements will be finished very shortly. The wines and liquors will also be one of the specialties, and judging from the standing of the new proprieter, it will take lead among our thirst quenching resorts.

THE SEWERS.

Another Batch of Citizens Interviewed by the Herald.

OUTFALL OR IRRIGATION?

Some Citizens Think One Way and Some Another on This Important Question.

Yesterday a HERALD reporter put in a couple of hours to advantage interviewing leading citizens on the projected plan of building a sewer to the ocean. On all hands he was met with warm congratulations on the work being done by the HERALD. Many said they were in great doubt as to a great many points; that the matter was one of the most momentous broached in the city for many years; that all the light possible ought to be turned on the subject in order that the people may know what they are doing. Many who are in favor of the sewer, and in favor of getting it built as early as possible, want to be assured that when they vote for the bonds they are voting for the sewer. They do not want to see half a million dollars raised on the public credit, and then see two, three, or perhaps even five years of vexatious litigation ensue in injunction suits or condemnation suits before the city benefits by the voting of her credit away. The more definite the matter becomes, the more diffculties are cleared up, the less the chance of interruption to putting the plan in actual operation, the more certain the bonds will be to carry before the people. If they are defeated it will be because the people lack confidence in the wisdom of those who are directing matters, and in their ability when the money is put in their hands to carry out the wishes of the people with dispatch and practical sense.

MAJOR BONEBRAKE FOR IT.

Major Geo. H. Bonebrake was found in his office in the Los Angeles National Bank when the reporter called. He said: I am in favor of an outfall sewer to the ocean. But for the demoralization of politics, I would like to see the city acquire title to 1,000 acres of land or more, and use the sewage on that for irrigation purposes. The question is whether all the profits would not be eaten up in one way or other. The city cannot handle such a matter as successfully as a private person, or as a corporation of men associated in business. Such things are always a great temptation to men. I recognize the value of the sewage for purposes of irrigation, and think it will always be used below the city except in winter time when it will not be desirable for irrigation. For this reason the sewer ought to go to the ocean. There will be a surplus to go to the ocean for part of four months, December to March inclusive. The sewage will be used a good deal of that time, but in rainy weather people will not want it, and then there should be an outlet. But we will have to avoid the contamination of the waters of the sea. All the sea coast will in a short time be required for residence purposes and for hotels. We will want all the space we have for these uses. We will have to protect the interests of Santa Monica and Redondo. Let the sewer be headed for the ocean; let all needed for irrigation be so used, and let the rest go out to sea. If it is found that the sewage is fouling the waters of ocean, then it will have to be filtered and deordorized. I certainly am in favor of the Ballona route if it can be used without working injury to Santa Monica. If that can't be done, then we will have to go some other way, no matter what the cost may be.

JOE SCHODER WANTS IT AT ONCE.

Joe Schoder, of the Messrs. Schoder & Johnston, was called on. He said: Yes, we all want the sewer. It is time to start it. It ought to go to the ocean. I think it ought to go by the Ballona route. Well, I do not know much about Santa Monica, or how it would affect that place. It is well to use what is desired by the land owners for irrigation, but it ought to be done only so as not to contaminate the air.

L. C. SCHELLER.

L. C. Scheller, who is in the office of the firm above named, came up while the conversation was going on. He is from San Jose. He stated that the sewage of the Garden City was run from the city limits to San Francisco bay at Alviso. On the way down it was used for irrigation, running in an open ditch. In the evening the air became so polluted by the smell of this open conduit that it had to be covered all the way to the bay.

H. W. HELLMAN WANTS IT.

H. W. Hellman, of Hellman, Haas & Co., kindly let go of some business he had in hand, and talked sewers for a few minutes. He said: We want the city sewered at once. As to the route, that is a matter for competent engineers to settle. Any practical route will suit me. All the sewage needed for irrigation ought to be used on the way to the ocean. If the city can so use it as to derive a revenue from it, that is all the better. We, should not oppose its going into private hands on proper terms. As to Santa Monica, I understand the mouth of the sewer is three miles from that place. I do not know, but I do not think the sewage emptying at that distance could injure our lovely seaside resort. But Santa Monica has her rights, and they ought to be guarded. They will have to be guarded.

I. N. VAN NUYS.

I. N. Nan Nuys, of the Los Angeles Farming and Milling Company, was seen. He said: Yes, we want the city sewered. We want it done as soon as possible. As soon as it can be done properly. The sewer ought to reach the sea. If the city can dispose of it for irrigation purposes, so as not to be detrimental to the health of the community, none ought to object. But the sewer ought to get to the ocean. It must go where it will not injure adjacent property, of course. I am not sure about Santa Monica. If some private parties will take the sewage and give the city a sufficient guarantee to take care of it, I would be perfectly willing that they should take it. They would, of course, expect to make something out of it, and we would not care if they did.

JOHN MILNER.

John Milner was found at the Farmers and Merchants Bank. He is a determined opponent of the proposed plan of making an outfall sewer. He said: No, I do not like the Ballona route. I am not in favor of running the greater part of the sewage into the sea. Take it where it is going now, to the southeast corner of the city, and make it a source of revenue. The sewage of this city is too valuable to throw away. Modern intelligence demands that this sewage be utilized. Modern science teaches that it can safely be made use of. In times of heavy rains there will be a surplus, which would have to be disposed of. There are, perhaps, thirty days in the year, distributed over four months in the winter, when there will be a necessity of running the sewage away. I do not know perfectly about using the river-bed for this purpose; but I do know that I will vote against the Ballona route, and that I will use all my influence to defeat it.

L. C. GOODWIN.

L. C. Goodwin was in the bank. He said: It is not necessary—there is no urgent need at this time to spend so much money for this purpose. There is little or no surplus water running to waste from the sewers now at any time of the year. I was talking yesterday to one of the officers of the Southside Irrigation Company, who are now taking the sewage. They say they have no difficulty in handling it at this time. They are glad to get it. In wet weather it can run into the river-bed and do no one any injury.

Several persons were seen who did not care to appear in the papers. Most of them are people either opposed to sewering the city at all at this time, persons who are opposed to the selected route, persons who fear that after the bonds are voted an injunction suit will tie the matter up for some years, or persons who would prefer to wait until after the next municipal election before voting the bonds. These citizens will talk in confidence to a reporter, but do not care to appear in print as holding or expressing such views.

Major E. W. Jones, President of the Chamber of Commerce, was strongly in favor of voting the bonds on the scheme as at present proposed. It may not be the best imaginable, said he, but is the most available at the present time, and if it fails I am afraid it will give the undertaking a bad set-back. The city needs to have the work done, and there are plenty of laborers here who need the chance to work. It will be very unfortunate if the thing falls through.

PUBLIC WORKS.

Improvements of Several Streets Contemplated.

The Board of Public Works went on its usual tour of inspection yesterday afternoon to look after the various improvements suggested by citizens in the several sections. The first place visited was Fourth street, between Main and Los Angeles, which has not been graded. Fourth street, below Los Angeles, has been nicely graded and is in good condition, but in order to reach the good part of the road a block of dusty and uneven surface has to be traversed. The board will probably order this block graded at its session today.

The opening of Wall street, between Second and Third streets, was next investigated, and it was informally decided to recommend that the district of assessment be both sides of Wall street, between Second and Fifth streets.

The necessity of opening Second street to the public by the removing of an obstruction at Los Angeles street was made very apparent, upon investigation, and it was decided to make the district of assessment on both sides of Second street, between Main street and Santa Fe avenue.

East Los Angeles was next visited and the proposed extension of Hoff street, between Pasadena avenue and Griffin avenue was examined. There were found to be no streets crossing for some distance on either side, and it was decided to recommend that the ordinance be drawn up fixing a district of assessment large enough to make the cost very light upon all concerned.

A drive was taken along Griffin avenue, which it is proposed to make into a boulevard to Pasadena. The avenue is graded for a considerable distance now, but it is of uneven widths. It is proposed to make it eighty feet wide, and to arrange the grade so that it will be easy enough to make a pleasant drive. If this is done, and connection made with a road to Pasadena, it will make a much better drive than the one which has been proposed heretofore. It avoids all railroad tracks and overlooks the Arroyo Seco and the country surrounding. The property owners expressed themselves as willing to make the improvements, but some of them desire to do the grading themselves.

Water street, from Buena Vista street north, is the connecting link with the San Fernando road, and it needs grading badly. The board will probably order the work done today.

Ellis avenue has been graded with the exception of a small piece in front of a piece of property on the corner of Toberman street. The board will order this graded as soon as the present grading has been accepted.

The board will also order a small piece of Flower street, below Pine street, graded.

The meeting of the board will take place at half-past 9 o'clock today.

The Chicken Business.

A complaint was filed in Justice Savage's Court Wednesday by John D. Sanford charging a man named E. H. Brown with grand larceny. He alleged that on the 21st of May last, Brown came to his residence driving a team which he claimed was his own, but which was afterwards found to belong to a truck company, and asserting that he was "Brown the chicken expert," built up such a glorious prospect of the wealth to be accumulated by the sale of chickens picked up at snap bargains in the country that he succeeded in obtaining $60 from Sanford with which to purchase an installment. After putting up his team in a livery stable, Brown went away and from that day to this, Sanford has never seen his self-constituted partner or any of the profits which he expected from his venture in the chichen business.

Beet Sugar.

The result of the assay recently made of the samples of the beet grown in this county does not appear to have been very satisfactory. Of the half-dozen samples sent to the Chamber of Commerce and turned over to the Spreckels factory for experiment, not one meets the requirements. The minimum per cent. of saccharine matter which is needed to insure success in the manufacture of sugar is 14. The highest per cent. reached by any of the samples assayed was 12 from the beets grown at Senator Cole's ranch at Cahuenga. The specimens grown on the Lankershim ranch and those in the Glendale District assayed 10½ per cent. Those grown at Verdugo were too young for successful handling, and they yielded 9¾ per cent. Those from the Nadeau ranch were gathered too late. They assayed 9 per cent. The effort to secure satisfactory samples will be repeated later on.

COUNTY LICENSES.

Many Object to the Passage of the Ordinance.

The proposition of the Board of Supervisors to collect a county license seems to be awakening a good deal of opposition, and when the matter next comes up it is probable that the list of the protestants will reach into the thousands. Not only will individuals protest, but the Board of Trade and the Chamber of Commerce will probably forcibly object to the final passage of the ordinance. The Supervisors even now find life almost a burden, for from all sides the objectors spring up, and they have had no peace since the ordinance was first read. Yesterday the following letter was forwarded to the HERALD for publication:

EDITORS HERALD—This county certainly has its thousand and one fascinations for the tourist, and too much may not be said of its climate and soil. Nevertheless, contrasts, however just, between life on the Atlantic and Pacific seaboards, go for little with eastern men whose eyes are open to certain shockingly bad economical conditions here prevailing. It is well, sometimes, to see ourselves as others see us. Accept, then, a loan of eastern glasses, and level them at one of these conditions—a real curiosity of municipal legislation, to-wit:

Your City Council, by ordinance, promulgates a system of business licenses, exacting fees for the privilege of engaging in the various mercantile and other pursuits.

You will pardon the curiosity which desires to know:

First. Whether these licenses are devised and operated for revenue or for business restriction, or for both.

Second. If for revenue, whether it would not be juster to include the amounts realized from them in the general tax levy, in fair acknowledgment that your marts of trade are really appointments for the benefit of the general public, and in pursuance of its demands.

Third. Whether, in truth, this system is not odious because of class discrimination. Thus: Three men come to Los Angeles, say from New York, one a farmer, another a merchant, and the third a gentleman of no occupation. They are possessed of like means. They are properly called upon to pay taxes upon their holdings, according to the benefits of society and the protection of government accorded them. But why should the merchant pay, besides, for the privilege of operating his capital, any more than the farmer for operating his, or any more than the gentleman for operating his, as he usually does in real estate channels, with, perchance, equal profit.

Fourth. Whether political and social conditions are not uninviting, if not questionable and dangerous, where discriminating assessments are leviable upon industrial opportunity. In the older and more populous cities they would be followed by political revolutions.

Fifth. The city ordinance seems to have been so successful that your county legislature proposes to duplicate and extend the system for county purposes. As sojourners, we truly pity your tradesmen and wonder "how long bricks can be made in Egypt without straw."

Now, sir, we venture the suggestion that the depression in trade complained of here is rather ascribable to your State and municipal legislation, rather than to the natural sequences of a "burst boom."

"NEW YORK."

Los Angeles, July, 1889.

TAR AND FEATHERS.

They Made Gus Bremen a Bird at San Pedro.

All San Pedro was in Los Angeles yesterday, and the rendezvous was around the rooms of Department 6 of the Superior Court, where Judge McKinley was trying H. Hendrickson. This is one of seven men who stand indicted for the same offense. They wish to be tried separately by a jury. Gus Bremen, a young German of perhaps 30 summers is the complaining witness. It appears that last April Bremen was playing in the role of the Gay Lothario at the harbor town of the Semi-tropics. He does not look like a masher, or a lady-killer, but love is reputed to be blind, and cuts up strange antics at times. But whatever Bremen looks like, he is reputed to have acted and talked like a most dangerous rake, a terror to women. In an evil moment he took lightly on his tongue, so the story goes, the name of one of San Pedro's matrons, and boasted of the privileges he enjoyed. The good people of San Pedro did not believe in the boasts made by Bremen, and resented his vaporings at the expense of a married woman. So, as the allegation in the case on trial goes, on the night of April 21st last, a party of men called on Gus Bremen at his place of abode, and induced him to go with them, ostensibly to go down in the town. Getting him away from the house, the party proceeded to take the tailor-made suit off of Bremen, and to replace it with a coat of properly prepared tar and feathers. He was then gagged, tied to a post, and left to chew the cud of bitter disappointment. The allegation is that R. G. Brown, Thomas Thompson, J. T. Hagan, H. Hendrickson, W. Watts, T. Willhide and John Herrman are the persons who thus made a bird of the festive Bremen. It looks as if it would take some time to complete the affair.

Clothing Wanted.

The Ladies' Benevolent Society, Mrs. Ducommun, President, is greatly in need of clothing for men, women and children. The calls are increasing daily and the society feels sure that if its wants were known there are many who would gladly send such articles of clothing that they are tired of and have laid aside as would be of great benefit to those less fortunate and who are obliged to accept charity. Very few people outside the actual workers in charity organizations have any knowledge of the distress to be found. Donations may be sent to Mrs. Charnock, 456 South Los Angeles street, or they will be sent for if word is sent to the same address, or to Mrs. Hattie C. Bath, 408 South Hill street.

The West-Enders.

The regular weekly meeting of the West-End Board of Trade was held Wednesday evening at the corner of Temple and Metcalf streets with a large number of members present.

The Committee on Fire and Water matters reported having visited the officials of the Citizens' Water Company and laying the grievances of the district before them under a number of heads. When that of excessive charges was mentioned, the reply was made that the ordinance fixing rates was not binding, and hence the company could fix charges as they saw fit. The reply to the rest of the grievances seemed to simmer down to the fact that the company did not have a sufficient amount of water to supply the district which its mains cover. The committee was instructed to go before the Fire Commissioners and inform them of the danger to property from the lack of water and ask them to take the matter in hand.

Mr. Baker, a resident of the West End and an expert on the development of water, was asked to address the board the development of a subterraneous supply, and gave a lengthy explanation of his investigations, and his faith in the fact that the purest of water and a sufficient quantity to supply 1,000,000 people can be developed within the city limits.

He will be present at the next meeting of the Police Commissioners and will take part in the proceedings. There were no new developments at the Police Station yesterday, and no changes in the arrangements or in the details of the officers were made.

THAT BABY.

Nielsen Gives His Version of the Affair.

P. H. Nielsen, the alleged father of the baby left on his doorstep by Christina Huenker, on Wednesday night, states that a great deal of the story told by the woman is not true. He says that he first met Christina when she worked for Colonel Eastman, but at that time did not become very intimate with her. Some time in 1888 he took rooms at Mrs. Schilling's,on East Pico street. In August of that year Mrs. Schilling was badly burned, and Christina left her place at Colonel Eastman's and entered the service of the Schillings to nurse Mrs. Schilling. At this time Mr. Schilling occupied a part of the room with him. Mr. Schilling generally had to arise early in the morning to go to work and he slept an hour or so longer. After Mr. Schilling took his departure, Nielsen says that Christina entered his room and forced herself upon him so that instead of being sued for seduction he thinks he should be the plaintiff in the case. Christina's attentions finally became so burdensome to him that he left Schilling's and went to a lodging house kept by Mrs. Alice Lion, taking with him a marble top table, a diamond stud and other trinkets which Christina had given him. Christina pursued him to his new lodging house, and finally he told her that he would positively have nothing to do with her and then she asked him to return the things she had given him. He did not do so as quickly as she desired and she attached his horse. He afterward settled with her by paying $38 and returning the articles she had given him. Mrs. Lion broke up her lodging house and he removed to another place. He denies that he is living or has lived with another woman as charged by Christina, and states that the same charge was made in the Times on January last, to which Mrs. Lion, his landlady, replied as follows, from San Francisco, under date of January 24, 1889.

To the Editor of the Times:

DEAR SIR—I have just received a copy of the Times, of the 20th instant, in which I read an article that I seem to figure in rather prominently. I must say that whoever your informant was did not adhere to the truth.

In the first place, I am not an old lady and, therefore, not likely to allow any one to malign any one unjustly. I did live at 15 Bottiller street, and the said Mr. Neilson had a room with me, and during the time he was in my house he behaved himself like a gentleman. Certainly he did pay his attentions to a young lady who lived with me, but who instead of being a girl in her teens is a young lady quite able to take care of herself, and who has always since I have known her, a period of five years, earned her own living. Previous to coming to my house he was keeping company with a young woman named Christina Huenker, who used to call at the house on every opportunity to see Nielsen. I told her one day in conversation that I thought her very foolish to run after him in that way, but she would not pay any attention to what I said, and last Christmas insisted on buying him a diamond collar button. I really cannot blame Mr. Nielsen for my leaving your city; my reason was I am known here, and thought it advisable to come here and seek for a position, since I had tried to obtain one in Los Angeles and could not; therefore I left voluntarily and am very sorry that any one should use my name to help them to do a mean action. I think I may safely assert that had Miss Huenker not allowed Mr. Neilson around so much, that he would have broken off with her some time previous to when he did. Also that my lady friend simply remained in Los Angeles because she had a position and not for the reason given by your informant.

Trusting that you will find space in your paper to refute that it was through Mr. Neilson that I left your city. I remain, ALICE LION.

As to the charge that he had two wives living in the East, he says it is also untrue. He exhibited papers showing that he served in the United States army from August 16, 1882, until August 16, 1887, and was single and of exceptionally good character. He said that just fourteen days after he was honorably discharged at Fort Worth he arrived at Santa Monica, and a month afterward came to Los Angeles.

Yesterday morning a man named Walters called at the Police Station and stated that he was willing to adopt the baby. He invited the mother to stay at his home in the country until she can procure a home for herself. No answer was given him, however, it being undecided what Neilson will do in the matter. Yesterday afternoon he was served with a notice that he would have to support the child, which is now in the charge of the Police Matron.

SYKES' FINE.

An Attempt to Elope Lands Him in Jail.

A young man named Robert Sykes was sentenced by Police Judge Owens yesterday to imprisonment in the County Jail for 100 days for having battered A. J. Smith on Wednesday night. Some ten days ago Smith, the complainant, arrived in the city from The Needles, accompanied by his wife, a tall and handsome brunette, and the couple took rooms at the Donaldson House, on First street. After being here a few days, their funds began to evince signs of becoming speedily exhausted, and Smith, with the hopefulness of youth, endeavored to obtain employment for himself, in the expectation of settling down to a permanent residence here. For several days he wandered round the city applying in every direction for a situation, but to no purpose. During his peregrinations he met Sykes and took him up to the Donaldson House and introduced him to his wife, and all three spent a pleasant half hour in conversation, when Smith again went out in quest of employment. While he was out Sykes made use of the opportunity to invite his acquaintance's wife out to luncheon, and on her acceptance of his offer, made himself so agreeable and spent his money so freely that she forgot her marital tie and consented to elope with him on the 10:20 train for the North that night. On reaching home Smith found that his wife had left the house and waited for several hours for her return, and as darkness set in he started out in the hope of finding her. Some instinct led him to the Wolfskill depot just as the Southern Pacific train was on the point of starting for San Francisco, and there seated in one of the cars was his wife and Sykes.

The passengers and others at the platform were edified a few seconds later by the spectacle of a tall young woman in tears being dragged by the wrist from the train, and, immediately on reaching the ground, a taller young man further intensified their curiosity by running to the lady's assistance and violently knocking the smaller man down. At this juncture Officer Auble, who is stationed at the depot at night, put in an appearance and took the striker into custody, and the train pulled out leaving all three behind. The policeman escorted the trio to a hack and drove them to the Police Station, and Sykes was locked up on complaint of the injured husband, who shortly afterwards took his wife home. It is understood that an attempt will be made today to obtain Sykes' release upon a writ of habeas corpus, but upon what grounds could not be ascertained.

SUMMER TRAVEL.

Los Angeles Enjoying Its Annual Vacation.

At the rate people are pouring out of Los Angeles for the seaside and the mountains, the city bids fair to be quite depopulated before long. The summer holiday season is now at its height, as the general dullness of business and social matters in the city, and the active condition of affairs at the watering places and mountain resorts show.

From the statements made by the railroad people, there has never been a summer when such numbers of passengers were carried to the seaside. The Southern Pacific has found it necessary to increase the number and size of their trains to Santa Monica, and are carrying all that can be comfortably disposed of. The new road, the Los Angeles and Pacific, enjoys a similar experience. Last Saturday the California Central carried about 700 people to Redondo Beach. On this road where last year there were but two trains there are now four daily and on Sunday six. The travel between here and Santa Barbara is reported as unusually heavy, and the trains to Pasadena and Sierra Madre carry many tourists to the mountains.

Several excursions of note have been planned for the near future. The Union League club proposes to celebrate its midsummer high-jinks this week. Saturday afternoon this organization to the number of several hundred will go down to San Pedro and take the boat over to Catalina island. They will spend a night and a day on the island at a safe distance from any camp. A large quantity of ammunition has been prepared for the occasion in which nothing is lacking, except water. As many of the party as are able will come back Sunday. Newspaper people are invited—not to come.

Mayor Hazard has applied to the Council for ten days' leave of absence, which, if granted, he will put in with a select party next week on board the yacht Rambler. They will cruise about the island, and allow any Jewfish that happen to fasten on the hooks to tow the boat wherever they list. When the Mayor comes back it may be supposed that he will tackle the erratic Police Commission and the intractable Council ring with new vigor.

Three big excursions are set down for the month of August. The National Guard to the number of about 400 men will camp at Pacific Grove from the 3d to to the 13th. The Knights Templar are planning to assemble at Coronado on the 8th of August, and 100 of the order will leave Los Angeles in uniform, accompanied by 200 friends and relatives. The G. A. R. encampment will take place at San Pedro about the same time. This will draw large numbers of visitors from Los Angeles and the surrounding territory, and bids fair to be one of the most enjoyable fetes of the season.

The Grand Army.

A number of prominent members of the G. A. R. went down to Santa Ana on Tuesday to attend the inspection of the Garden Grove Post and Relief Corps, of Orange, and the Sedgwick Post, of Santa Ana. Among those who attended were Department Commander Gard and wife, District Commander Mudge and wife, Assistant Adjutant General Bacon, Assistant Quartermaster General Butler and Comrade M. F. Tarble. An enjoyable programme of a musical and literary sort was given. The affair was in every way exceptionally pleasant.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

That is Now the Question with the Hotel.

Having invited suggestions as to the name of the great hotel, here are a few of the answers: F. J. Hall, Sr., suggests "The Grand Pacific." A very modest man, who does not like to see his name in print, says call it "The Welcome," and signs himself "A Friend." Chris Holle writes to call it "Hotel Royal." Charles A. Gardner is on the horns of a dilemma between "The Semi-Tropic" and "The Palms." F. M. Choguill is for "Hotel Summerland." This is not after the Councilman from the Eighth ward. W. D. Rogers says "The Nonpareil." And the list closes with R. R. Haines' suggestion of "Angeleña."

I am satisfied that Cancer is hereditary in my family. My father died of it, a sister of my mother died of it, and my own sister died of it. My feelings may be imagined, then, when the horrible disease made its appearance on my side. It was a malignant Cancer, eating inwardly in such a way that it could not be cut out. Numerous remedies were used for it, but the Cancer grew steadily worse, until it seemed that I was doomed to follow the others of the family. I took Swift's Specific, which, from the first day, forced out the poison, and continued its use until I had taken several bottles, when I found myself well. I know that S. S. S. cured me.

FRIDAY, JULY 26, 1889.

The Southern Pacific Railway's Deed of Right of Way for the Sewer.

We give below some important extracts from the Southern Pacific railway's deed to the city of a right of way for the outfall sewer over its property, as the deed was published in the Tribune of the 23d inst. After reciting "that whereas, the Council of the City of Los Angeles had asked for 'perpetual right of way for a sewer along its lands and road,'" the said deed contains, amongst other things, the following recital, viz:

"In consideration of one dollar—and "in consideration of the covenants and "agreements hereinafter mentioned to be "made and entered into by said City of "Los Angeles—grant the right of way "asked for upon the following terms and "conditions:

* * * "Said sewer shall be so con- "structed, repaired and maintained that "it will not in any way affect the opera- "tion of the railroad of this company," etc. "Said sewer shall be a closed sewer. "and shall be kept in good condition by "said City of Los Angeles during the life "of this grant."—(i. e. perpetually).

* * * "The construction or repairs "of, or work of any description done "upon said sewer shall at all times be so "performed as not to delay or endanger "traffic upon said railroad, and for all "damage to railroad property or to the "employees of this company, or of its "lessees, successors or assigns, and for "all damages to freight or passengers "caused by the construction, repairs, "maintenance of or other work done on "said sewer—the City of Los Angeles "shall be responsible."

From the above extracts it appears that heavy damages and unending liability will be fastened on this city by the acceptance of the deed and the building of the sewer under its conditions.

The sewer may cave, or break, or burst at some place on the route, and thereby undermine or cause a sinking of the roadbed, and may cause thereby a wreck and probable loss of life to passengers, or damage to cars and freight. The liability for such damage often amounts to many thousands of dollars. The city binds itself to pay untold sums in the future on this account, and the question is whether it is wise to assume an indefinite liability.

A Neat Programme.

The community at large is not aware of the political undercurrents which are now in full career in Southern California. The most notable feature of Republican politics is that Gen. William Vandever, who now represents the Sixth Congressional District, has fully made up his mind to be Stanford's successor in the Senate of the United States, the assumption—a very wild one, by the way—being that the next Legislature of California will be Republican. It is owing to the ambition of the old gentleman that the slate for the Federal offices hereabouts has been re-arranged, and Ambrose has come in for a recommendation from the California delegation. Ambrose is a protege of Senator McComas, who will be a hold-over Senator, and who will thus have a vote for United States Senator in the next Legislature. Part of the same plan is to run Col. H. H. Markham for Governor and Major Bonebrake for Congress. It will thus be seen that a very full provision is being made for the political welfare of Southern California as far as the Republicans are concerned. The combination is a strong one, and it will require work to beat it in the Republican ranks if, as we are advised, there is unity of action between the gentlemen named. The Senatorial portion of the programme has a much greater chance of miscarrying than its other features, but it will at least remove Gen. Vandever from the Sixth Congressional arena.

Not Fungus.

The State Viticultural Comm ission recently sent Dr. H. W. Harkness, President of the San Francisco Academy of Science, to Los Angeles to investigate the vine disease. The special point to which Dr. Harkness was to give attention was fungoid disease, from which the vines in this section were supposed to be suffering. The doctor has the reputation of being the best authority on fungi in the State. When he was here he persistently declined to be interviewed, or to say anything as to his observations. On his arrival in San Francisco, however, he sent the following letter to the Viticultural Commission:

SAN FRANCISCO, July 17, 1889.

Charles A. Wetmore, Esq., President Viticultural Commission:

DEAR SIR—In compliance with the request of the commission, I have visited the southern portion of the State with the view of determining the character of the fungus discovered by your expert, Mr. Ethelbert Dowlen, to the presence of which he attributes the wholesale destruction of the vines in that region. A careful inspection of Mr. Dowlen's work was made, the infected fields visited, and examples of the diseased vines brought home for a more critical examination than could be afforded elsewhere. As a result of this careful study, I am convinced that no fungus exists, either in the root, stem or leaves, to which the death of the vines can be attributed. All vascular plants of whatever order, even the healthiest individuals, harbor fungi, nine-tenths of the species of which do no harm, or so little as to be inappreciable to their hosts. Baron von Thumen has enumerated nearly a hundred belonging to the vine, only five or six of which are in any degree hurtful, the very great majority being saphrophytic—that is, growing on the dead or dying host and not upon the living, healthy one. All the fungi mentioned and figured by Mr. Dowlen belong to this group and are common not only to the vines of California, but to those of Europe as well.

It is perfectly safe to assert that no fungus known to science is capable of doing much injury unless it exists in such quantity as to make it perfectly visible to the naked eye.

Certain obscure diseases of plants, "peach yellows," for example, have been for many years the subject of investigation and experiment, yet seem no nearer a solution than at the commencement; possibly the chemical condition of the soil and disturbed nutrition may have something to do with such disorders.

I wish to take this opportunity to again call attention to the danger of the proximity to vineyards of the wild vine, Vitis Californica, numerous specimens of which, covered with Peronospora viticola, have already this season been brought to me from Napa, Sonoma and Lake counties. H. W. HARKNESS.

Now we await an answer from Professor Ethelbert Dowlen, who has been for nearly a year engaged in the study of this disease, and who has all along maintained that the vines were suffering from some form of fungus, or some fungoid growth. When doctors disagree, etc.

THE Times, in its issue of yesterday, comes out flat-footedly against the sewer bond proposition. For a long time the HERALD was the only Los Angeles journal that had the courage to see two sides to this question. The Fort street journal summarizes its objections in the following terms:

(1.) Its excessive cost over other systems equally effective.

(2.) The objections on the part of seaside communities.

(3.) The necessity of purchasing, at an exorbitant price, a tract of worthless land at the outfall.

(4.) The wastefulness of the system on the route proposed.

(5.) The danger of injunction suits in the future.

(6.) The risk of defeating the entire scheme for a sewer system, by submitting to the people a proposition involving an objectionable plan.

Undoubtedly substantially these objections will determine many citizens to vote against the sewer bonds. Our contemporary next proceeds to outline points which should prevail in the devising of a proper system, which have been repeatedly presented in the HERALD.

THE man who wrongs a woman the least possible thing for him to do is to care for her in her distress and to help in her maintenance. Men are but men, and flesh is weak and subject to temptation. But the callous villain who wrongs a woman and then abandons her in her misery is not worthy the name of man He puts himself on the low level of the male brute, which cares little for its mate and less for its offspring. The man who imitates the example of the scriptural head of our race, and when confronted with wrong-doing, basely turns and throws the blame on the woman, ought to be treated as Adam was, and driven from the presence of men, as he was scourged from Paradise. Such a case has been developed in Los Angeles. The craven, callous wretch's infamous delivery appears in the local columns of the HERALD. Shame! Ten thousand shames on him who so forgets his manhood!

THE only point we can see in the Express's long article of yesterday is the assumption that the sewage of Los Angeles cannot be delivered on a route which shall substantially be that of the Los Angeles river. As we have repeatedly shown that it can, and as that prime fact has been ascertained as the result of elaborate surveys, and as City Engineer Eaton's original and favorite plan of a city sewage farm was based upon the acquisition of land in that direction, we beg to dismiss the Express's labored article as unworthy of serious attention.

LET NO one be misled by false statements, no matter whence they emanate, to the effect that the Ballona route is the only one by which the sewage of this city can be taken out. A competent engineer has leveled all the way from the University to the Nadeau vineyard. There is an excellent fall from the one point to the other. Considerations of the public interest will not lead either a newspaper or an individual to make false statements about these matters. Ulterior purposes always lie behind such a policy.

ROYALTY'S necessity is Labouchere's opportunity. Royalty in England is prolific to an amazing degree, and Her Gracious Majesty is most liberal in her endowments to each grandchild, at the people's expense. Grandchildren multiply to the house of Brunswick, and now there is no small danger that this army will be reinforced by another of great-grandchildren. And what will the tax payer of England do then, poor thing? Labouchere merits the name of the watch dog of the Treasury.

THE Tribune has the inexpressible gall to assume that its suggestions were carried out in the action taken by Supervising Architect Windrim and General Vandever in the matter of the Federal building. It is hard to compass a greater feat of pure effrontery than this. That journal's fight was to have the work stopped outright and the site removed, with the result of a conspicuous failure.

NOTES come to us that the Union Pacific is in the field in Eastern Nevada actually locating the lines of the road about to be built to this city. Stirring times lie just ahead of us, and prosperity will be universal in this section in the coming fall.

THE HERALD this morning presents another array of views for and against the sewer bonds proposition. We are determined that the views of representative citizens on this issue shall find full expression in our columns.

SAMOAN SURVIVORS.

Returned Sailors and Their Grievances.

WERE THE SALTS MISTREATED?

Charges Against the Commanding Officers Met and Refuted.

[Associated Press Dispatches to the HERALD.]

WASHINGTON, July 25.—On the 15th of June San Francisco papers contained statements of certain survivors of the disaster to the American vessels at Samoa—enlisted men on Trenton and Vandalia—which if true presented a severe indictment against the authorities of the country, especially of the Navy Department, for cruel treatment and heartless abandonment of the sufferers by that disaster. The papers practically endorsed the statements of the men and reported that about thirty of them were roaming around the water-front of San Francisco, unable to secure the wages due them, destitute and dependent upon charity for their subsistance.

THE CHARGES BY THE MEN

Were in substance that they had not been paid the "rag money," $60, which the United States had contracted to allow them in case of the loss of their clothes by the sinking of the vessel; that their wages prior to the date of the disaster had not been paid them; that they had been discharged and sent adrift, none of them with more than $25; that the clothes furnished them in Samoa had been charged for at the regular rates, leaving them little or nothing to live on after the cost had been deducted from their pay; that Lieutenant Carlin, executive officer of the Vandalia, had refused to sign a certificate for one of the seamen, to be presented to the Fourth Auditor, by which he would be enabled to procure his "rag money," and finally that when the men disembarked from the Rockton on arriving in San Francisco they gave three groans for Captain Farquhar of the Trenton, and that they were deprived of what was justly due them by subsequent action taken by him in a spirit of revenge. Copies of the newspaper article were sent to President Harrison, and six of the sailors joined in

A PETITION TO SECRETARY BLAINE

Asking that he use influence to have justice done them. Attached to this petition was a copy of one of the newspaper articles. These were referred to Secretary Tracy, who ordered an investigation made as to the truth of the statements. The papers in the case have just reached the Navy Department, and make the following showing;

Commodore Benham, of the Mare Island Navy Yard, says the newspaper articles have not a grain of truth in them, and that the attack upon Lieutenant Carlin is unjust in the extreme, for the reason that he remained at San Francisco by his own request and was temporarily assigned to the receiving ship Independence in order that he might be able to look after the interests of the Vandalia's men, and aid them in obtaining an early settlement of their claims. As to the complaints of the discharged men, the Commodore says it is hardly necessary to remind the authorities that the men cannot be held beyond the date of their enlistment. He further furnishes a statement made by Lieutenant Burnett showing

THE AMOUNTS PAID TO THE MEN

Who reached San Francisco, fifty-nine in all. These range from $26 81 to $272 08, in no case being as small as the largest amount said to have been paid the men. Eighteen of the men are reported as having deserted after their arrival, and of course they received nothing. Lieutenant Carlin states that of the nineteen men who, it was possible, "were roaing about the water front," one was discharged at his own request; two were discharged at the expiration of their enlistment; three were discharged by sentence of a court-martial, and thirteen were deserters. The clothing issued to the men at Samoa was charged to them at a discount of 66⅔ per cent. It was good clothing, worn by officers and men.

AS TO THE "RAG MONEY,"

It is stated that the Government does not sign a contract to pay $60. It does promise to pay as much as $60, on certain conditions. The Lieutenant says the claim of the men were excessive as a rule. A seaman shipped in January and wrecked in March can justly claim his pay for two months and no more. If he has drawn $60 worth of clothing he is in debt for at least $12.

Captain Farquhar could not, and did not, have an order regarding the amount of money to be distributed to the Trenton men. The amount of money actually allowed was one man's pay, and the sailor who complained that Carlin refused to sign his application to the Fourth Auditor was told that it was useless to make application until that official was in possession of certain data which could not possibly be furnished before the last of July, but he refused to accept the statement as final, whereby the Lieutenant told him to make out his own application. The officer says he did not know that the seaman had obtained a blank to be signed. He further says:

"As to the statement that I would help no one to get his money until I got mine, I will only say that I am here at my own request for the purpose of putting the various records in shape so that the Fourth Auditor may properly settle the men's accounts. This work is now finished.

"APPLICATIONS FOR INDEMNITY,

"Otherwise known as 'rag money,' have been made out for all the men, dead or alive, and I have as yet taken no step toward getting my own money."

In conclusion he says: "There are six names signed to the letter to the Secretary of State, viz: McCluskey, Stewart, Devine, Bleidner, Lane and Boyle. McCluskey was not at Samoa at all. Lane was discharged by court-martial. He was on board the Nipsic, which was not sunk, and he has not a shadow of a claim for anything. Boyle and Stewart were discharged by court-martial. Bleidner and Devine were discharged at the expiration of their enlistment. All of them, except Boyle, were paid in full, but some of them had a claim for loss of personal effects. O'Donnell, the other man mentioned by name in the newspapers, was discharged by sentence of a court-martial. The only men entitled to sympathy are Johansen and Stechmer. They have money due which they cannot get at present. Their claims must follow the routine in the Fourth Auditor's office, and if I am not mistaken an act of Congress is necessary."

THE NEW STATES.

What the Constitution-Makers Did Yesterday.

OLYMPIA, July 25.—The convention occupied itself some time today undoing yesterday's work. The article on county, city and town organizations was reconsidered and amended several times, but it was finally passed without very material changes. A large portion of the report on the executive and pardoning power was adopted. The Committee on Indebtedness reported today an article limiting the State debt to $400,000, except in case of war, or for some scientific object, with the consent of the people at election. Counties, cities, towns or school districts must not exceed 1 per cent. indebtedness on the assessed value of the property without the assent of three-fifths of the voters. Subsidies not to exceed 4 per cent. of the assessed value, are allowed for railroads and other objects. The Committee on the Bill of Rights also reported its article. It abolishes grand juries except by special call of the court; they shall then include only seven members, five of whom can indict. The appropriation of public moneys to religious bodies for any purpose whatever is forbidden.

HELENA, Mont., July 25.—The discussion of the of the Suffrage Bill today in the convention brought out a heated debate. Hartman offered an amendment that voters must be able to read and write the English language. He wanted precaution taken against the slums and criminals of Europe. McGinnis said Montana needed immigration. To disfranchise foreigners would stop it. When a vote was taken only eleven voted for the amendment. The woman suffrage question came up next. All the afternoon was taken up with speeches pro and con, and yells for adjournment. Finally, at 6 o'clock, a vote was taken on the proposition that the Legislature may submit universal suffrage to a popular vote once in four years. It was defeated, and the convention adjourned till tomorrow.

BISMARCK, N. D., July 25.—The Committee on Temperance today reported in favor of the submission of the prohibition question to a vote of the people. The report was adopted. Legislative Committee provides that the Senate shall consist of not less than thirty, nor more than 50 members, and the House not less than 60 nor more than 140; the Senators to be divided into two classes, to be elected for two and four years respectively. The trading of votes among members shall be considered bribery. The Committee on Education prohibits sectarianism in schools and leaves to the Legislature the establishment of a uniform system. The Suffrage Committee introduces an article submitting the question of female suffrage to a vote of the male electors one year from next fall.

SIOUX FALLS, S. D., July 25.—In the convention today the report of the Legislative Apportionment Committee was adopted with a slight amendment. The special committee on the communication from the American Sabbath Union reported that the convention has no power to amend the constitution by inserting the provision referred to in the communication.

BOISE CITY, July 25.—The convention wrangled all day over the suffrage question. It finally agreed upon the majority report, almost entire, if anything being made stronger. All agreed that it was necessary to cut the Mormons off from the right to vote, hold office and act on juries. It provides a secret ballot, prevents anyone from voting who practices polygamy, plural or celestial marriage, or belongs to an association teaching or practicing these crimes; gives the Legislature the power to enact laws proscribing limitations for voters.

DROWNING THEIR SORROW.

The Fort Worth's Cut.

DENVER, July 25.—It is announced that the Denver, Texas and Fort Worth road will tomorrow announce a reduction of 18 cents per hundred on first-class freight from Denver to New York and the Atlantic seaboard, via Galveston and the Gulf of Mexico. It is also announced that a further reduction of 4 cents will be made within a few days, making a total reduction of 22 cents. Arrangements are also being made to extend this reduced seaboard rate to Utah, Montana and all Northwest points. The action of the Fort Worth is causing no little consternation among the Western Trunk Lines, and several conferences of the railroad officials of this city were held today. Much speculation is also made as to the effect this cut will have upon western freight traffic, and principally upon the lake and canal rates.

Mary Anderson.

NEW YORK, July 25.—A weekly theatrical journal contains a long article about Mary Anderson, the well known actress, in which the writer says he is creditably informed that she is suffering from a mild form of paresis, and is at present in a sanitarium on the other side of the water. No verification or denial of the report could be obtained tonight, but most of her friends in this city look upon it as very improbable.

EASTERN EVENTS.

Sequel to the Wyoming Lynching.

HANGING COMMITTEE ARRESTED.

Flood Reports from West Virginia and Kansas—Minnesota Cyclones.

[Associated Press Dispatches to the HERALD.]

DENVER, July 25.—A special from Douglas, Wyoming, regarding the lynching of James Averill and Ella Watson, on the Sweetwater last Saturday for cattle-stealing, says: The man and woman were on the way to Caspar, and were surprised by the lynchers near the Sweetwater. While in the act of hanging them, a man named Buchanan, a friend of Averill, appeared on the scene and fired into the mob, wounding John Durbin in the hip. The lynchers then pursued Buchanan, who rode fifty miles to Caspar and told his story.

Warrants were issued for the lynchers, and a Deputy Sheriff with a posse of seven men started for the scene of the tragedy, arriving there Monday morning, where they found the bodies of Averill and Watson hanging from the limb of a pine tree, their tongues protruding from their lips, eyes hanging out upon their cheeks, and their faces swollen and discolored almost beyond recognition. Judging from the signs, a desperate struggle had taken place on the cliff, and both the man and woman had fought for their lives until the last. Their bodies were cut down and taken to the Healy ranch, where the Coroner empaneled a jury, which rendered a verdict to the effect that the deceased met their death at the hands of John Burbin, Tom Sunn, J. R. Bothwell, Sam Johnson and a man named McLean.

The two bodies were then placed in a box and buried on the ranch. The Sheriff then proceeded to the ranch of Tom Sunn, who readily gave the names of the other lynchers. Sunn was taken into custody, and the party went from there to Bothwell's ranch, where he also was arrested. Both prisoners admitted that they assisted in the hanging, and when informed that they would be taken to Rawlins, Bothwell told the Sheriff to take a look at the trees on his way back to Caspar, as he was likely to find six or eight more cattle rustlers hanging by the neck.

The two prisoners were taken to Rawlins today, where they waived examination and were bound over in $5,000 bail. It is thought Sheriff Watson will reach there some time tomorrow with other lynchers. All who participated in the hanging are among the foremost cattle men of the Sweetwater Valley. Durban lives in Cheyenne, and is one of the pillars of the church. Bothwell is the son of a wealthy business man, and Tom Sunn, an old pioneer scout, is known all over the West.

FLOOD AND STORM.

Destitution Wrought by the West Virginia Deluge.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va.—July 25.—News, received today for the first time since the flood, from the West Fork and Henry Fork, gives a sad story of wreck and ruin. Every store from the head to the mouth of the forks, is gone or ruined. Houses, fences and crops were washed away and several lives were lost. Couriers from Tygart bring a long list of houses and property, bridges and culverts that are gone. The list which embraces every farm on the creek is too long to enumerate. To tell the story briefly, it can be stated that not a single farmer or resident escaped damage. Hundreds are bankrupt and will have to be supported temporarily by the county. The Commissioners today estimate the loss in Lee, Tygart, Ilate and Steel counties, at half a million dollars. At Saulsbury not a single house or bridge stands on its foundation, and many people are in the woods. The Mayor of Parkersburg has issued an order for a meeting of citizens tomorrow to render assistance to the homeless.

THE KANSAS INUNDATION.

FREDONIA, Kan., July 25.—The water in the flooded Fall river bottoms here is rising two inches an hour. The river in places is seven miles wide, and the water twenty feet deep. A heavy iron wagon bridge, after standing fifteen years, went down last night, leaving only two railroad bridges standing in the neighborhood. The flood is within a quarter of a mile of the city. A relief party has been organized, and works day and night. Some families, slow to move, are surrounded, and are being rescued as fast as possible. No deaths have been reported, although a few persons are missing. There have been no mails here for two days, and telegraph wires are operated with difficulty. The weather indicates more rain.

HAIL AND CYCLONE IN MINNESOTA.

ST. PAUL, July 25.—A Pioneer Press Morristown, Minn., special says: A severe hail and electric storm in this vicinity this afternoon did great damage. Several buildings were demolished. At Anoka the most terrific thunder and rainstorm known in years was experienced. Much damage is reported from the surrounding country.

MINNEAPOLIS, July 25.—The Tribune's special from New Prague, Minn., says: A tornado 200 feet wide passed half a mile west of here this afternoon. One house and five wheat-laden railroad cars were destroyed. Crops in the path of the storm were demolished. No lives were lost.

The matter was continued until tomorrow morning, when the prisoners' attorneys will be in court.

WINNIPEG, July 25.—The application of Burke's counsel to make the writ of habeas corpus granted yesterday, absolute, is being argued before a full court. The case today was adjourned at the conclusion of Mr. Howell's argument, until tomorrow, when Burke's counsel will be heard.

The Canadian Cable.

OTTAWA, Ont. July 25.—Application is being made to the Government to guarantee the bonds of the Canadian Cable Company to the extent of half a million of dollars. The total capital required is $1,000,000. Bobell of Quebec, has already secured $350,000 of this in England by private subscription, and will return there shortly to raise this sum to $500,000. Then, with the Dominion guarantee, he will place $1,000,000 in the hands of financial agents, and invite subscriptions for the balance of $700,000, which, it is thought, will be eagerly taken up.

A construction company has been organized in England to lay the cable. It will be the shortest of all the ocean cables. Entering the water at Westport, Ireland, it will run to Greenly Island, in the Gulf of St. Lawrence, a distance of only 1,900 miles.

A New Comet.

BOSTON, July 25.—A cable received today from the European Union of Astronomers announces the discovery of a bright comet in the southwestern heavens by Prof. Davidson, of Queensland, on July 21st. It has motion northwards of nearly three degrees a day. This cannot be the comet which was reported yesterday as being Barnard's comet, as seen from Sidney, New South Wales. The comet discovered by Prof. Brooks, of Geneva, New York, has been observed at Lick and Cambridge. A rough orbit computed by Prof. F. S. Chandler, indicates that it is probably a comet of short period, passing its perihelion in August. It will not become at all bright.

Landsman & Co., merchants of Helena, have a bill of sale to plaintiffs of their stock to secure an indebtedness due them. Plaintiffs now sue for the value of the account of the Montana bank at the First National Bank of Chicago, which was garnisheed.

Timely Advice to Grape Growers.

WHAT TO DO WITH WINE GRAPES.

The Union Pacific Road Heading for Los Angeles—The Blythe Case.

[Associated Press Dispatches to the HERALD.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 25.—The Grape-growers and Wine-makers' Association met this afternoon. The proceedings opened with the reading of a paper upon the drying and marketing of wine grapes as a remedy for the over-production of wine, by W. P. Bartlett, who stated that the drying of wine grapes began in 1887, in which year only eight carloads were dried, most of which came from Fresno, netting the owners about 3½ cents per pound. In the following year 112 carloads were dried. From present appearances, it is thought that from 150 to 200 carloads of this year's crop can be marketed East, for from 3½ to 4½ cents per pound, which will net the grower from 2 to 2½ cents. It is in contemplation also to send about twenty-five tons, as an experiment, to Bordeaux or some other suitable point in France.

It was recommended that a co-operative organization be formed among the growers in various districts for the more advantageous disposal of their products.

Charles A. Wetmore stated that he had written a letter to Consul Bee, asking him to confer with the most prominent Chinese merchants with a view to inducing the latter to take at least 1,000 tons of dried grapes of the present year's crop at, say three cents per pound, to be disposed of in China.

Arpad Haradzthy, of the committee appointed to investigate the possibility of forming a great co-operative organization for the purpose of distilling the surplus wine product, stated that it was proposed to establish distilleries, say seven in number, at various central points in the State, such as Santa Rosa and points south, wherever it was possible, leasing a plant rather than building it, in order to economize capital. He stated that a number of capitalists had already been interviewed on the project, all of whom regarded it favorably, some promising to subscribe liberally for stock.

At the evening session a paper on "Preparation for the Coming Vintage," by William Pfeffer, and one on "How to Secure Labor" were read. A brief general discussion of each subject ensued. On the latter point George H. Maxwell spoke in favor of the general organization of the fruit and grape producers of the State, and on his motion a committee was appointed to report on the proposition.

Resolutions were adopted indorsing the action of the Wine Dealers' Association in seeking the extension of the bonded period for brandy from three to five years, also indorsing its effort to receive from the Transcontinental Association a reduction in rates eastward on bottled wines.

THE BLYTHE CASE.

Florence's Cause Strengthened by Yesterday's Evidence.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 25.—The examination of Mrs. Perry, Florence Blythe's grandmother, was resumed at the trial of the Blythe case today. A number of letters which passed between Blythe and the Perrys, chiefly in reference to Florence's welfare, were identified.

Among the letters read was one in which Blythe replied to the inquiries of Mrs. Perry as to whether he objected to having Florence baptized and christened. Mrs. Perry, for her husband, wrote that the child's mother had opposed the christening, saying that Blythe objected to it. The Perrys also asked if Blythe wished the child christened Florence Perry or Florence Blythe. In his letter Blythe said: "After full deliberation I think it best to have Flora brought up in the Episcopal Church, the Church of England. You will therefore have my daughter christened at once, and have her named after her father, Florence Blythe."

Mrs. Perry stated that in compliance with Blythe's request, Florence was baptised and christened at Blackpool, Lancaster county, England, July 31st, 1881. The certificate of baptism was admitted in the evidence, wherein the names of the parents are given as Thomas Henry and Julia Blythe. In the blank left for the occupation or quality of the father is written "gentleman."

In one of his letters, dated February 10, 1882, Blythe wrote that he would be 60 years old on the 10th of July. According to those claimants who say Blythe's real name was James Savage, he must have been at this time 68 or 70 years old.

After adjournment today one of the claimants said he thought Florence had made her case good, but that he would not throw up his own case. He said that, as he understood it, Judge Coffey's decision could effect only that part of the estate which lies in California. The Judge might hold that Blythe had adopted the little girl, and therefore she would be entitled to the bulk of the property in California, but that his Mexican lands and his property in Arizona and Nevada would not be included in the inheritance.

FOREIGN FLASHES.

The Dignity of Royalty Must be Supported.

IT TAKES CASH TO DO IT.

Labouchere Gets off Some, Fine Sarcasm on the Matter of Royal Grants.

[Associated Press Dispatches to the HERALD.

LONDON, July 25.—The report of the Parliamentary Committee on Royal Grants was called up in the Commons this afternoon. Smith, the Government leader, declined to answer the question as to the amount of the Queen's savings, and moved the adoption of the committee's report. The Government could not believe, he said, that any important section of the people grudged royalty the moderate provision necessary to maintain its dignity. If they examine the systems of other civilized countries they would find the English system the most economical, giving invaluable stability, while obtaining the respect of all English speaking people.

Labouchere moved the adoption of his substitute, declaring that the sums given the royal family were already ample, and if further supplies were needed, they ought to be provided through retrenchments in the royal household, and not by fresh domands upon the tax-payers. He ridiculed Smith's assertion of economy, calling attention to the fact that while the President of the United States received only $50,000 annually, the Queen and her family received $3,500,000. The Government admitted the large savings of the Queen from the civil list. Doubtless these savings were well invested. It was impossible for the country to submit to the burden of an indefinite number of grandchildren. He did not complain of Mr. Gladstone supporting the grants. The Liberals understood Gladstone's position.

Labouchere proceeded to explain how a reduction of the Queen's household would produce a sum necessary to provide for the junior royalties. If the useless office of Lord Chamberlain, Lord Steward, Master of the Horse, Master of the Buckhounds, eight Lords in Waiting, eight Grooms in Waiting, four Equerry, and a number of others were abolished, an ample sum would be left for the purpose mentioned. There were gentlemen who would be glad to do the work these offices entailed for nothing—Mr. Chamberlain, for instance. [Laughter.]

Samuel Story, Radical, seconded the amendment.

Gladstone said he was averse to all measures of economy that impaired the dignity and splendor of the Crown, therefore he supported the Government.

Morley attributed the fever that had been excited by the question of royal grants to the Government's want of frankness. Their original proposals were stupefying, and they had withdrawn from their impossible and impracticable position in agreeing to a grant of £36,000 in order to prevent mischievous friction between Parliament and the Crown. The extravagant grants of former reigns furnished no excuse for a repetition of them now. He could not support Labourchere because that gentleman implied that the message from the Queen ought never to have been presented, and he (Morley) desired to uphold the good forms and traditions of Parliament, but on Monday he would move an amendment raising the whole question in the broadest possible form.

Mr. Bradlaugh adjourned the debate.

Gladstone's Golden Wedding.

The callers included the Speaker of the House of Commons, Lord Hartington and all the leading Liberal members of Parliament. A large number of handsome and costly presents was received. His Irish admirers sent an album symbolic of Gladstone's political achievements.

A BIG FAILURE.

Lewis Bros. & Co. Go to the Wall.

THEIR PAPER GONE TO PROTEST.

They Make an Assignment—Causes of the Big Dry Goods Firm's Collapse.

[Associated Press Dispatches to the HERALD.]

PHILADELPHIA, July 25.—Surprise was occasioned in business circles this morning by the announcement that the firm of Lewis Brothers & Co., wholesale dry goods dealers on Chestnut street above Second, had made an assignment. While the exact amount cannot as yet be ascertained, it is thought the liabilities will run up to nearly $4,000 000. The firm is one of the largest in its line of business in the city, and perhaps in the country. It has houses in many of the large cities of the United States, notably New York, Chicago, Baltimore and Boston. The members of the firm resident in this city are George W. Wharton, Joseph W. Lewis and Henry Lewis. Wharton, when seen this morning, promptly admitted the authenticity of the rumor that his firm had made an assignment.

Cornelius W. Bliss, of the New York firm of Bliss, Favayn & Co., is the assignee.

"I am unable," continued Wharton, "to place the amount of our liabilities. However, I feel convinced that they will not be much in excess of the assets. Of course, it is impossible to determine these things until an examination of the books has been made. We are now going over our books and will probably know more definitely tonight how and where we stand. If we could have had two or three days more, I am sure we would have been able to tide over our difficulties, but the blow fell just at the worst time, and our only course was to make an assignment. This we did. For some time past our business prospects have never been brighter, but you know you can't market paper."

NEW YORK, July 25.—The announcement that the notes of the heavy dry goods firm of Lewis Brothers & Co. had gone to protest was the absorbing topic in mercantile circles today. The assignment was filed in the County Clerk's office here this afternoon. Cornelius W. Bliss was made assignee. The assignment was executed in Philadelphia.

The parties will make a statement in a few days. Bliss, the assignee, said the firm's statements in the past sixty days showed a surplus of over $1,000,000, but that was not available now. A large part of it was in accounts which they could not collect immediately. He thought the assets would make a fair showing. The liabilities were to banks and trust companies. There will be a meeting of creditors in ten days he said.

A man familiar with the firm's affairs said today nearly all the banks in New England held the firm's paper, especially in cities where they had mill accounts. Boston, Providence, Hartford, New Haven and New Bedford banks are reported to hold considerale paper. The New York banks mentioned are the Fourth National, Ninth National, Central National and Central Trust Company. Philadelphia banks are the heaviest holders.

The firm had been extended and overloaded. They suffered a severe loss in the death of Henry Lewis, the founder of the house, who was well known, particularly in Philadelphia.

It was learned from another source that the firm own their store property in Philadelphia, and also their store building on Worth street, New York, which is on leased ground, and which, it is said, was mortgaged a few months ago.

It is said that one of the causes of the failure was the Johnstown disaster. The late Henry Lewis had a large interest in the Cambria Iron Works there, which his estate held, and the loss by the flood depreciated the securities. The Johnstown Manufacturing Company and the Woodville Woolen Mills consigned their products to Lewis Brothers. The mill was destroyed by the flood and the loss was $300,000. It was controlled by the Cambria Iron Company.

Walter Lewis was a Director of the New York Life Insurance Company.

The business of the firm has amounted to as high as $15,000,000 a year. Lately it is said to have fallen to $8,000,000 or $10,000,000 annually. They claimed their capital was a million and a half, and they made money every year. Since January there has been doubt expressed about their financial standing, and in March last, Bradstreet's took away their capital rating and reduced their credit rating one grade.

April 20th the firm made the following statement to a large financial institution: Assets, $5,472,000, consisting of ledger accounts, $1,875,000; manufacturers' accounts, $1,793,000; securities, $811,000; real estate, $770,000; bills receivable, $223,000. Liabilities, $4,129,000, of which $3,692,000 was bills payable, and $447,000 loan. Net surplus, $1,343,000. This was not looked on as a favorable statement by the trade.

The firm had hard work to make collections. The firm was interested in the Conshohocken Worsted Mills, which failed, and they admitted in March last that they would lose $25,000 by President Bullock's insolvency.

For over twenty-five years the firm of Lewis Brothers & Co. has been the leading house in the dry goods trade. It was founded in Philadelphia in 1851. The founder died in 1886, leaving a large estate, of which $258,000 was invested in the capital of the firm, besides $1,000,000 of his which was contained in the business.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., July 25.—Mills and banks here will be involved by the failure of Lewis Bros. & Co. to the extent of $600,000. Local banks have about $150,000 of their paper and the rest is divided among half a dozen mills. None of them will be seriously embarrassed.

BALTIMORE, Md., July 25.—Prominent dry goods men here estimate that Lewis Bros. & Co. have in Baltimore more than half a million dollars assets and no liabilities.

CHARLEMAGNE TOWER.

Death of the Noted Iron King—History of His Achievements.

PHILADELPHIA, July 25.—A private dispatch from Waterville, N. Y., announces the death, at his summer residence there, of Charlemagne Tower of this city. Mr. Tower was in his 81st year, and his death is due to paralysis. He leaves four daughters and a son, and an enormous fortune.

Mr. Tower was born in Oneida county, N. Y. He graduated from Harvard University in 1830. He studied law in New York City, where he practiced for some time, afterward going to Pennsylvania. His steps may be traced through many great legal battles in different counties of Pennsylvania. He became the owner of large bodies of coal lands and was director of several corporations. He was actively interested in the construction and management of the Northern Pacific railroad, and a member of its board of directors for several years. The greatest and most successful undertaking, perhaps, of Mr. Tower's long business career was his development of the iron resources of Minnesota, now well known to the world as the Vermillion range.

It was about fifteen years ago that Mr. Tower learned of the existence of iron ore deposits near Vermillion Lake, a body of water ninety miles northwest of Duluth. The country was then a wilderness of forest, almost without paths, and its exploration was a matter of great difficulty. An expert was, however, sent out by Tower in 1875 to make a thorough examination, and his report was so favorable that he purchased about 20,000 acres of mineral land near the lake. Years were required to get things into shape, and it was not until 1883 that Mr. Tower had things in readiness for the construction of a railroad. He laid out a line of road from the lake to a point on Lake Superior about thirty miles northeast of Duluth, called Two Harbors.

Here Mr. Tower bought property, constructed docks and acquired terminal facilities. Mines were opened and a force of men set at once digging ore. Meanwhile the railroad was being built. All through the winter of 1883-84 a force of 1,500 men were laboring in the Minnesota woods, felling trees, grading and laying tracks. The expenses were enormous, but Mr. Tower was equal to the demand upon his resources. Hundreds of thousands of dollars were expended, and not a cent coming in. Through the spring of 1884 the work was pressed with vigor, and late in July the road was complete. On July 31, 1884, the first train load of ore passed from Vermillion Lake to Lake Superior, whence it was shipped on barges to Cleveland. Before the close of the year 68,000 tons of ore had been shipped form the mines, and by 1887 the annual output had been increased to 400,000 tons.

On June 5, 1887, Mr. Tower disposed of his large interests in the Vermillion range to a syndicate. On that day in this city Mr. Tower handed over to the syndicate the stock and bonds of the Duluth and Iron Range railroad and the title deed to some 20,000 acres of land, and received, in return, certified checks on banks and financial institutions to the amount of over $6,000,000.

PERSISTENT FIRE-BUGS.

More Incendiarism Reported From San Bernardino.

SAN BERNARDINO, July 25.—This morning at 2:10 fire was discovered in a two-story house of ill-fame on First street, occupied by Eva Walker and owned by Kittie Brown. The fire department and citizens went to the scene, but the fire had too much headway. The contents of the house were completely saturated with coal oil. The house and contents were insured for $6,000. A frame cottage, next door to the brick, was burned also. It was occupied by Annie Burlingame and owned by Mrs. Ada Suhr. The contents of this house were nearly all saved. This house and contents were also heavily insured. Eva Walker was arrested this morning for complicity in the fire, but was released this afternoon. Two men were seen in the building just before the fire was discovered and they have disappeared. Officers are now on the track. It looks as if the fire was expected, as the officers have found five trunks filled with clothing, which the girls of the house removed several days ago.

LEIDESDORFF'S ESTATE.

Another Contest for a Dead Man's Effects Begun.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 25.—It has been ascertained that a trust has been formed recently in Buda-Pesth and the United States by heirs of the late Wm. Leidesdorff, the object of which is to overthrow the title to the entire Leidesdorff estate, valued at about fifty million dollars. Leidesdorff came here in 1844 and acquired the property, which now includes thirty-three blocks south of Market street, this city, and a great quantity of other valuable city and country property. Leidesdorff died intestate and it is claimed that Captain J. S. Folsom went to St. Croix and procured quit-claim deeds to the greater part of the property from Leidesdorff's mother's heirs, who have now formed a trust. They claim that this person was only a dummy and not related to Leidesdorff. It is understood that proceedings will be commenced soon to recover the property.

A LONG RECESS.

The Parnell Commission Adjourns for the Summer.

LONDON, July 25.—The Parnell Commission entered upon a long recess today. When the court met this morning Hardcastle, an accountant, testified that the books of the Land League which had been produced before the Commission, covered the whole period of the League's existence. He could not say that the £75,000 which was unaccounted for, owing to the absence of the books of the Ladies' League, had been misappropriated.

Soames, solicitor for the Times, in reply to a question by Sexton, said he could not tell within £10,000 the amount the Times had paid witnesses. The sum, however, was very large. This concluded the taking of evidence. Court adjourned to October 24th.

Judge Hannen ordered Thomas Condon and John O'Connor, members of the Commons, who were serving sentence in Ireland for offences under the crimes act, and were brought to London to testify before the Parnell Commission, to complete the remainder of their terms in a London prison.

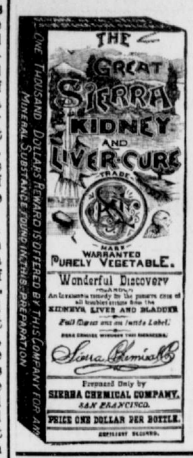

Ohio Prohibitionists.

ZANESVILLE, Ohio, July 24.—The Prohibition Convention today nominated Rev. J. B. Helwing, of Springfield, as Governor; L. B. Logan, of Stark county, Lieutenant-Governor; Gibeon T. Stewart, of Norwalk, Supreme Judge; D. N. Trowbridge, Treasurer; E. J. Pinney, of Ashtabula, Attorney-General. The platform urges the suppression of the liquor traffic; declares revenue from it contrary to the fundamental principles of rights; favors woman suffrage; denounces stock and grain gambling; favors a non-sectional adjustment of the tariff, and declares in favor of enforcing the Sunday laws.

Strikers Hardly Dealt With.

BERLIN, July 25.—The trial of the strikers arrested at Breslau resulted in the conviction of thirty-two. Henkel, the ring-leader, was sentenced to seven years' penal servitude, and to be deprived of his civil rights seven years. Nine were sentenced to terms ranging from eighteen months to five years, at hard labor. Twenty-two were sentenced from a year to four years, without hard labor.

EXCHANGE REVIEW

NEW YORK, July 25.—The stock market was weak at opening this morning, but soon recovered and advanced steadily throughout the remainder of the day, scoring material gains before the close. Reports of the great dry goods failure, however, created a bearish feeling among the trading element here, and first prices were from ⅛@¾c. below last evening's closing figures, and by vigorous hammering at the outset, further losses were established. The great majority of the list is higher tonight, though the only marked changes were gains of 1¼ in Union Pacific and 1 per cent. in Northwestern.

Government bonds were heavy for the 4s.

Petroleum opened firm at 101⅜, closing steady at 100¾.

The Illustrated Herald on Sale.

This morning, and hereafter until further notice, the LOS ANGELES ILLUSTRATED HERALD will be for sale over the counters of our business office. It realizes all that we have claimed for it, and it is, unquestionably, the handsomest publication of the kind ever issued in California. In the artistic character of the illustrations and the value of the letter-press the ILLUSTRATED HERALD is absolutely unique. Everyone who can afford to do so, should send a copy of it to his friends in the East. It will do untold good. The pictorial and statistical matter will do much to disabuse the minds of the Eastern people of the stories so industriously circulated to the prejudice of this section. We take great pride in the fact that this beautiful publication—a miracle of the art preservative of all arts—was issued from the HERALD Job Office.

Transcontinental Affairs.

CHICAGO, July 25.—The following statement as to the situation of affairs in the Transcontinental Railway Association was made to a reporter of the Associated Press this afternoon by a very prominent member of the association: "The published reports as to the terms asked by the Canadian Pacific in the matter of differentials are inaccurate. The fact is at yesterday's meeting the question of differentials was referred by the general meeting to the Executive Committee, and by that committee referred to a sub-committee of four. This committee made a unanimous report, but it was not entirely satisfactory to either the Southern Pacific or the Canadian Pacific, and is now held under consideration by the Executive Committee.

"You may say that the association is not going to pieces. There is feeling in the association and it has only one or two exceptions, that there should be no differentials. At the same time, in the interests of harmony, small differentials will be conceded."

No definite progress was made today toward settling the dispute. The proposition is still under consideration by the Executive Committee. With one or two exceptions, the members are all in favor of abolishing differentials, but in the interest of harmony they will make some concessions.

A Big Show in '92.

NEW YORK, July 25.—In response to invitations extended by Mayor Grant, representative business men of the city assembled in the Governor's room in the City Hall this afternoon to consider the project for holding an international exposition in New York in 1892. The Mayor presided and made the appointment of four committees—one on Permanent Organization, one on Finance, one on Legislation and another on a Site and Buildings. The Chamber of Commerce this afternoon appointed a committee of sixty of the most prominent men to co-operate with the national, State and city authorities in promoting the project and making a success of the exposition.

Exclusion Act Modified.

WASHINGTON, July 25.—The Treasury Department has acquiesced in the opinion of the Attorney-General that Chinese can pass through United States territory in transit to foreign ports, and the practice of the department, which has been exactly the reverse, will be modified accordingly. Instructions were sent today to the Collector at New Orleans to permit the landing of the Chinese who recently arrived there on the way to China.

A Decided Fake.

WASHINGTON, July 25.—In response to a telegram Tuesday respecting the case of Mrs. Heron, reported under sentence of death in Corea for preaching the doctrines of Christianity, the Acting Secretary of State this morning received the following message from Minister Dinsmore:

"SEOUL, COREA, July 24.—The report concerning Mrs. Heron is wholly without foundation.

LAUGHING PARALYZED.

Joseph Oscar Johnson Condemned to Laugh All His Life.

Joseph Oscar Johnson was sent to Rofi Home a few days ago, and his case is probably one of the most remarkable that ever went to that or any other hospital. He is a paralytic, and one side is entirely useless. The stroke came on him some two months ago. He is a locomotive engineer, and was able to make a good living. He had seen a good deal of the world, and generally saw the bright side of it. It was in the town of Clinton, S. C., that the stroke came on him. He was on a run that carried him into that town. He was one day doing some work on his engine and talking to someone standing near. At the moment he received the blow he was in the act of laughing, and, strange to say, the muscles and nerves of the face that are brought most into play in the act of laughing are the ones that are the most affected, and over these he has no control whatever. He feels, of course, like there is little left for him to live for, being utterly helpless, and it is necessarily a sad thought for him. But he cannot think of it or tell of his troubles and the doubts and fears that torment him without laughing. He has a wife and five children, and when this affliction came upon him he went to his father-in-law, who lived Wilmington, N. C., and told him of his condition and of his inability to care further for his family, and telling him at the same time that for himself he did not wish to be a burden upon any one, but would go somewhere and seek seclusion and calmly await the closing of what was henceforth to be a useless life. The recital of the parting with his wife was most pathetic and heart-rending, yet with tears in his eyes and a heart full of agony, he was forced to laugh as though he had been telling the most ludicrous incident.

He has wandered from one country to another, and has frequently gone several days without a morsel to eat. Recently he spent a night in the woods in a violent rainstorm. His crippled leg refused to serve him longer, and he was compelled, without shelter, to take the violence of the storm. His thin clothing was wet to the skin, he suffered the pangs of hunger, and the recital of it made him shudder all over, yet he laughed all the time he was telling it. It was a most pitiful sight. He says he dares not go to church, lest he be accused of making sport of the services and be requested to leave the church. And as for a funeral, it would be out of the question for him to attend one.

His case is a pitiable one, and is the more so because he is only awaiting the only relief possible for him, and that one he would hail with pleasure and almost prays for.—[Macon, Ga., Telegraph.

DR. M. HILTON WILLIAMS,

Specialist in all the various diseases of the Head, Throat and Chest,

Including the Eye, Ear and Heart, together with

DISEASES OF FEMALES.

OFFICE:

In the Hollenbeck Block, cor. Spring and Second sts., Los Angeles, Cal.

Oxygen, Compound Oxygen, Nitrous Oxide, and other inhalations, used in all DISEASES OF THE LUNGS.

We have introduced the COMPOUND OXYGEN TREATMENT with our systems of practice in the cure of Asthma, Bronchitis, Consumption Dyspepsia, Insomnia, Sore Throat, Catarrh Rheumatism and Nervous Prostration, whil only the most improved methods are employe in all female complaints

As is well known, oxygen is the life-giving principle in the air we breathe and ozone in the air imparts that happy and buoyant feeling after thunderstorms. Persons often require more oxygen than is in the air around them, and cause doors and windows to be opened, tear off collars, loosen the waist, and call for a fan to displace the stifling and bring fresher air or more oxygen. Traveling is done mainly to resorts where the air contains more oxygen, and mountains are ascended to breathe the ozone, which is light and ascends from the earth.

Oxygen and ozone are gases, and must be stored up and used by inhaling them. Our apparatus for storing and having these gases compounded with other suitable agents, is perfect; and, although they are not a cure-all, yet they are undoubtedly the greatest invention made in the last 20 years in any department of medicine, and the results are truly wonderful.

Oxygen acts by purifying the blood, thereby increases the circulation, promotes absorption, improves digestion and assimilation, increases the capability of the lungs, and acts as a gentle stimulant to the nervous system.

The London, England, Lancet, very truthfully says: "The Compound Oxygen treatment is the greatest discovery of the Nineteenth Century." Clergymen, statesmen, lawyers, doctors, and all classes indiscriminately, wherever it is introduced, both use and recommend it.

The testimonials given below are very fair samples as to the time required for effecting cures in these troublesome diseases:

Dr. Williams—DEAR SIR: I am happy to say that the cure you effected in me for a severe case of throat disease has proved to be permanent. For over a year I was troubled with post-nasal catarrh and granulated throat disease, and had done so much for it that I had but little hopes of ever being cured, when I first went to you, but you gave me such positive assurance that you could cure me that I began your treatment, and in four months from that time you discharged me as cured, and I am happy to say the cure was a permanent thing in every particular up to the presen time, which is now over a year. Yours very truly,
MRS. LUCY H. TRASK,
809 South Olive street, Los Angeles, Cal.

Dr. M. Hilton Williams—DEAR SIR: I have been contemplating for some time past making a statement of my case and the benefit I have derived from your treatment, remembering how glad I would have been could I have seen something of the kind from a person in the city, to whom I could have referred, when first came to Los Angeles from my home New York State.

I had been suffering for several years with what various physicians in the East pronounced "chronic ulcerated laryngitis." I spent considerable time at the Clifton Sanitarium, and employed the best medical skill I could find, all without any permanent benefit, and as a last resort our family physician recommended Los Angeles. For a time I improved, and then I began to go backward and all my former symptoms returned.

Through a medial friend I was induced to try your treatment. I became very much discouraged at times, but persevered, as I felt almost desperate and knew of nothing else to turn to. My throat trouble being aggravated by a serious stomach difficulty, made it very obstinate to deal with, but at last, after persevering for a time with your remedies, I consider I am permanently cured. If this will be of any value to you, you are at perfect liberty to use it; also to refer anyone to my mother, my husband or myself. Very truly yours,
MRS. J. D. WILEY,
Los Angeles, Cal.
